

OPEN CALL

BABEL - The Art of Listening in Theatre for Young Audience

We are looking for three YDN members who are performers to participate in the next Rounds of the BABEL Project. One member will be selected per Path, and the participants must be available and commit to attend both weeks of each Paths. Both workshops included in one path are a continuous process and it is important that the group stays the same for the whole duration.

Travels are reimbursed up until 350 euros, accommodation and food are covered.

A little more about BABEL Project : A European large scale cooperation project, that pursues the rights of children and youth to full cultural citizenship, and it aims to investigate the communication process, intercultural dialogue, and mutual understanding in TYA and more extensively the Performing Arts for Young Audiences. There is a total of 16 intensive weeks of artistic work encounters, where performing artists from different language communities directed by artistic facilitators will interact in the studio and on stage with other artists and the audience through creative and experimental workshops.

Be part of this unifying experience !
