

Invitation

“Do we all speak the same language?”

Thursday October 28 in the frame of the Visioni Festival 2021 at the Testoni Ragazzi theater in Bologna there will be a day of meetings and conversations between delegates, artists and presenters focused on dance for children organized by the Assitej Young Dance Network in collaboration with the Festival "Visions of the future, visions of theater 2021", organized by La Baracca-Testoni Ragazzi of Bologna with the partnership of the Assitej Small Size Network.

This is a first organized exchange of experiences between dance and theatre professionals doing works for young audiences for the purpose of asking questions and stimulating a dialogue between different languages and expressions of dance for young audiences (DYA).

The meeting is divided into two parts:

1. “The body is speaking”: A live meeting in Bologna from 10.00 to 13.00

The international curator/presenter and trainer Roberto Casarotto will lead this workshop addressing some important issues of reflection starting from the body. One aim of this workshop is to do a first step to create an Italian network for DYA.

2. “International networking is exchange”: An international online meeting from 15.00 to 18.00

15.00-15.30 A short presentation of the Assitej Young Dance Network. Its history and its aims

15.30-16.30 An online activity led and conceived by Alfredo Zinola and Nicola Elliott testing a speed dating format

16.30-18.00 A round table of knowledge sharing led by Omar Meza about topics like fund raising, organizing, building of infrastructure and audience relations for DYA

For further information please contact Giovanna Palmieri at palco.tn@gmail.com

To register to the online activities please send your name, email address and language preferences to youngdancenetwork@gmail.com

This focus day on Dance for young audiences is organized by Assitej Young Dance Network in collaboration with La Baracca-Testoni Ragazzi and the Assitej Small Size Network

